Note: Choosing UPS Next Day or 2nd Day does not mean that you will receive your order 1 or 2 days after you submit your order. It may take 2 to 3 days to assemble and ship your order. UPS shipping only reduces the travel time after the order leaves our warehouse.

Orders containing more than one item may be shipped from different warehouses. Therefore, items may arrive in separate packages (with a separate packing slip) and may also arrive on different days.
